

A query is composed of elements joined by ANDs and/or ORs. Each element refers to a single datapoint and its associated (meta) data.

Each element is processed separately and results are intersected for ANDs, differenced for NOTs and unioned for ORs